

1. Subject: Youth and Children Tourism

2. Type of course: class contact and field trips

3. Form of completion the course: credit for the course (with mark)

4. Semester: winter

5. The number of classes: 20 hours

6. Programme:

(1) The meaning of the youth and children tourism. The characteristic features of the youth tourism. The categories of term of the youth. The typology of tourist behaviour of the youth.

(2) The level of the youth and children tourism activity. The characteristic features of the youth and children tourism activity. The factors and the barriers of the youth and children tourism activity. (3) The children and youth psycho-physical development and tourism. The characteristics of the following periods (the pre-school period, the schools period, the adolescence, the early adult period). (4) The pedagogical and didactic role of tourism. (5) The regulations concerning the youth and children tourism. The safety of practice the youth and children tourism. (6) The rules of organizing the school excursions. (7) The rules of organizing the leisure for children and the youth: summer camps, winter camps, etc. (8) The ecological education for the youth and children. The rules of organizing the field schools. (9) The rules of organizing the camps. (10) The role of organizations and associations in the promotion of the youth tourism. (11) The youth and children tourism products. The typical didactic tourist trails for the youth and children.

7. Effects of education:

a/ knowledge: student

- has a basic knowledge of the children and youth psycho-physical development
- is familiar with the basic concepts and psychosocial mechanisms related to tourism of children and teens

b/skills: student

- is able to plan, organize and lead the summer and winter camps, field schools, school excursions etc.
- can speak on the results of their own actions and thoughts

c/social competences: student

- can properly identify priorities for the implementation of specific task
- perform her/his work reliably, especially working within complex projects taking into account the safety rules.

8. Determination of first degree qualification:

Student ought to understand specific features of youth and children tourism and its practical importance. He/she should know the rules of creating the tourism products directed to children and teens.

9. Department realising the subject: Department of Tourism and Recreation

10. Lecturer: dr Iwona Dominek

11. The condition of holding the classes: the separate group in English

12. Proposed numbers of ECTS points: 4 points