

- 1. Course: Snoezelen as the occupational therapy method
- 2. Type of classes: lectures, practical classes
- 3. Assessment: credit with a grade
- 4. Semester in which classes will be conducted: summer semester
- 5. The number of hours: 20

6. Syllabus

The aim of the course: Introducing Snoezelen as the occupational therapy method with various groups of patients. Describing the principles of correct Snoezelen Room arrangement and sessions conduct.

Pre-requisites: Basic knowledge of occupational therapy.

Content: (Lectures): Snoezelen – its origin and essence. Snoezelen – eight methodological principles. Snoezelen – applications to different groups of patients.; (Classes): Planning a correct Snoezelen Room. Snoezelen Care Plan. Free sessions and structured sessions.

Teaching methods: Lectures. Discussion. Working in groups. Case studies

7. Learning outcomes: Student knows and understands the theoretical basis and methodological criteria of Snoezelen. Student understands the impact of Snoezelen method in occupational therapy. Student knows how to arrange a correct Snoezelen Room. Student knows how to conduct free and structured sessions in Snoezelen Room with various groups of patients.

8. Qualifications definition: I and II level studies

9. Organisational unit of a course: Department of Sensory Occupational Therapy

10. Persons responsible for the subject: Agnieszka Smrokowska-Reichmann, PhD

11. Conditions of the course: lectures - on campus / on line, practical classes – on campus in the Snoezelen Rooms (max. 12 students)

12. Proposed number of ECTS: 4

13. 8 hours can be conducted on line